YEF QUEENS 2019 OYO STATE AITEO FOOTBALL CHAMPIONS

Some players of YEF Football academy and their coaches before the final Oyo State AITEO competition in Ibadan

It was a show of skills and talents at the main bowl of Lekan Salami Stadium, Adamasingba Ibadan, Oyo State as YEF Queens dazzled their opponent and pulled off what will go down in history as the best AITEO cup female final Football competition in Oyo State. By virtue of this feat however, YEF Queens have qualified to represent Oyo State at the national competition. The final match of the competition had in attendance representatives of the Nigerian Football Federation (NFF), Oyo State Ministry of Youths and Sports development, University of Ibadan, Media personalities and the general public.

Sports, as one of its program intervention areas, YEF recognizes that it (sports) builds self-confidence and ensures a high sense of competition which is paramount in the socio-economic lives of women.

The Oyo state government thanked YEF for grooming a young vibrant female Football team who has made the entire Football family in Oyo state proud with their dazzling skills, determination and focus.

They further pledged their commitment in partnering with YEF in future engagements.

GIRLS KICKED AGAINST HIV/AIDS IN IBADAN

The girls during their international AIDS candlelight Memorial day in Ibadan

Members of the YEF Queens Football academy in Ibadan on Saturday 18th May 2019 reechoed their voice in the prevention of HIV/AIDS in Nigeria. This was in commemoration of the International AIDS candlelight Memorial Day in Ibadan Oyo state. The outreach started with a Football match between team A (positive behavior) and team B (HIV virus). Team A however won the match by 2 goals to nil. The outreach activities also featured a campaign against HIV/AIDS with important messages on placards.
